Three specimens of apples which had lain all winter in the orchard of L. C. Robinson at Williamstown, were brought to this office today. They are in a fairly good state of preservation in spite of the long winter out of doors. One was a Peawaukee and the other two were Foundlings. They were picked up yesterday by Arthur Robinson of this city.
The menu to be given by the Ladies Union of the Universalist society Friday evening, will be as follows: Strawberries and cream, sandwiches, assorted cakes and coffee. The programme following will consist of readings by Miss Tilden and Mr. Carver, piano solos by Miss Alice Averill of Boston and selections by the choir. The whole is for 20 cents.
A reader called attention to a matter of interest to many, i. e., the removal of moss from monuments in the cemetery. This reader says the Keith monument at the rear of the tomb in Elmwood cemetery has been cleaned with a preparation that brightens the monument and removes all traces of the moss, and kills it so that it will not grow again. E. M. Tappan is agent for the preparation.
Ainslee's for June, as usual, carries a strong list of fiction. The complete novel, entitled "The Custodian," is by Archibald Eyre, author of "The Trifler." There are short stories by such well-known authors as Joseph C. Lincoln, Seumas MacManus, Mary B. Mallett, Owen Oliver, Anne O'Hagan, Vincent Harper, Martha McCulloch Williams and William MacLeod Raine. The essays are timely and above the average.
The exterior of the City Hall went through a "spring cleaning" last evening, with Chief Campbell of the fire department in charge and came through as clean as a burished tin pan. The cleaning was done by means of two streams of water from the hydrants nearby and there was force enough to almost start the bricks. The streams shot into the air twenty feet above the fourth story. Some of the inmates of the building got a liberal sprinkling also.

The Daylight Store

Values Worth Looking Up.

There is something more than mere price to consider when you buy these garments. There are good judgment, anticipation of the people's fancy, the genius of care in little details, the consideration of quality first. There's the knowledge that quality is enduring and price but a question of a moment. We've been in the garment business long enough to know that the trade demands the serviceable and not the trashy goods, and take pleasure in placing our experience and unrivaled stock at your service.

Ladies' Suits.

We bought, a few days ago, a lot of Suits, mostly in mixtures, at a liberal discount, which enables us to offer them to the trade at quite a little off from the regular prices. The following are a few hints as to their value:

At $19.98—A variety of styles in fine Tailored Suits, such as silk lined, silk faced, braid trimmed, paneled effects, in cottons and blouses, with capes and trimmed cape effects. These Suits are the regular $25.00 and $30.00 Suits.

Ladies' Suits.

At $15.98—Suits such as have been our best sellers at $18.00 and $20.00, fine tailor-made, silk lined cottons and blouses, braid and silk trimmed, plain and self-trimmed. No two alike.

At $9.98—Suits such as would sell if bought at the regular price for $12.00 and $15.00, fine all-wool cloths, well made and braid and self-trimmed, blouses and cottons. If in need of a Suit at a little price, these should appeal to you.

At $7.98—Suits such as would sell for $10.00 and $11.00, but we are selling what few of these are in the lot for the little price of $7.98. They are a good-styled, well-made Suit.

Rain Coats.

One special lot of Rain Coats at a price that should interest many this weather. These Coats are coats that sold in a regular way for $11.00. Our special price for this sale is $7.75.

The new styled Blouse Rain and Traveling Garment is a garment which is very popular just now. Just the thing to wear over the full waist, as it will not crush any undergarment that you may want to wear under same. Very swell. The price is only $15.00.

SILK COATS.

We have a sample line of Silk Coats, just received, which we are selling at a little price. All Coats that sold at $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00 for $12.50. Other Coats from $5.98 up. See them.

Mrs. Joseph Parady of St. Johnsbury, who has been in town visiting her son, Arthur Parady, returned to her home last evening.

A shipment of 2,000 fingerling lake trout passed through Montpelier yesterday from the state hatchery at Roxbury for C. H. Blood of Barton.

The funeral of Edward Shea will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from St. Monica's church. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Senator Redfield Proctor passed through Montpelier yesterday afternoon on his way to Lyndonville. He had a brief conference with Senator Dillingham at the station.

The showers yesterday afternoon interfered somewhat with the opening shoot by the Montpelier Gun club at their grounds near Barre transfer. The new trap was used for the first time and gave excellent satisfaction.

The Ladies' Union of the Universalist society will give a sociable in the church parlors Friday evening, May 20. A strawberry supper will be served from 5.30 to 7.30 o'clock. An interesting programme will be given at 8 o'clock. Admission, including supper and entertainment, 20 cents.

The Shirt Store of the Town

'Tis by the reason of our immense Shirt-trade that we lay claim to the distinctive term, "The Shirt Store of the Town." We know that no concern gives the study of Shirt fashions and Shirt making more serious thought than we do.

The result is a high achievement in the Shirt business not equaled elsewhere in our city. Our Shirts are imported and our Shirts are made for our trade. The designs and colorings are in advance of those shown by other Shirt dealers.

Everything new in Madras and genuine French Percales—both plaited and plain negligee styles, attached or detached cuffs.

Come to the Shirt Store for your Shirts. Large price range—50c up to $2.50 each.
